Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into malady which demands the surgeon's knife if they do not remedy naturally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of curing such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional endorsement of each of its ingredients—each more than any other of its kind—such as the following: The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles which will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

THE FERRER DEMONSTRATIONS

The red flag was raised in London yesterday afternoon and a large mob moved upon the Spanish embassy to make a demonstration of its disapproval of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer, the convicted revolutionist, at Barcelona a few days ago. Several bodies of police were stationed at the approaches to the embassy and they drove off the crowds in their usual bloodless official way. But considerable excitement and uneasiness pervaded the neighborhood. The groans and howls were plainly heard in the embassy and at Buckingham palace near by.

No one was injured seriously, although the mounted police rode against the crowds and scattered them several times.

The trouble began with a mass meeting in Trafalgar square, which was organized by several socialist and labor bodies. Several hundred of the members of these organizations marched to the square carrying red flags with crepe and bearing inscriptions denouncing King Alfonso. A black-bordered banner was raised against the Nelson column with big letters that could be read from afar. "In hell with the murderer, Alfonso." After J. M. Green, secretary of the "Friends of Russian Freedom," had called the meeting to order he read a telegram from the Countess of Warwick, saying:

"No words are too strong to express Europe's horror at the murder of Ferrer."

Several laborite members of parliament delivered strong orations. Victor Grayson, of Manchester, the socialist member, capped the climax by declaring that if the head of every king of Europe was torn from his body it would not pay half the price of Ferrer's life. He called the Russian emperor "a dirty monster," and said that King Edward, who could have prevented the execution, was responsible for what ever might happen in England as a result of it. He demanded the expulsion of the Spanish ambassador.

Strong resolutions were adopted before the meeting ended.

The anti-Spanish demonstrations in Paris culminated yesterday in meetings and processions in the larger cities of France, organized by the socialists and workmen's organizations. The organizers laid emphasis on the peaceful character of these demonstrations, and although violent speeches were made, little disorder is reported.

The socialist deputies and municipal councillors headed the procession, which was composed of about 12,000 persons who sang the Internationale. While passing the Spanish embassy and several churches there were cries of "Down with the clergy," "Down with Spain," but the majority of the paraders refrained from disorder of any kind, obedient to the instructions of the leaders.

After the procession disbanded rowdies attacked a priest in the Tuilleries Gardens and attempted to throw him into the lake, but the police rescued the priest.

All indications point to the fact that the extremists in Italy are determined to undertake an anticlerical campaign more vigorous even than in France. This is being directed by the Freemasons, whose grandmaster has issued a most violent manifesto in behalf of Ferrer, and against the church. The manifesto says:

"Sacredotal tyranny, still vermillion with Italian blood, imposed and obtained through the fright of a boy and the cowardice of the government, the slaughter of an innocent man, who was not judged, but murdered. Italy, which has seen scaffolds redened, fire applied to the stakes and the slaughter even of unarmed women and children ordered by the church, must understand its duty. Rome, which has inside its walls the villain that for centuries has supported all tyrannies, from which, to our shame, the slaughter of Barcelona originated, must decree that the last crime will not remain unpunished."

A pro-Ferrer procession, in which many of the marchers carried flags draped with crepe, one of them having a caricature of King Alfonso, with the inscription "Alfonso is a monster," caused a fight with the police in Genoa yesterday.

Cardinal Pietro Maffi, archbishop of Pisa, and several bishops, while attending the Congress of Sacred Music in Pisa yesterday, were hissed by the crowds with cries for Ferrer.

Big Ferrer demonstrations were held in the principal cities of Belgium yesterday. At Liege rowdies smashed the window of churches and religious establishments. Cable dispatches from Barcelona state that the situation there is increasingly alarming. Twenty-seven bodies have been thrown in the last four days, 5 persons being killed and 21 wounded. On Saturday an attempt was made to rush the fortress of Montjuich to release the prisoners. A bomb was thrown against the door, but it failed to explode, and the attacking party fled on the approach of the guards.

New Corset

For Stout Women

Thousands of stout women who have imagined that they must have their corsets made to order are now saving half their money and enjoying greater comfort by wearing the famous Nemo Self-Reducing Corset.

A model for every stout figure—tall and stout, short and stout, or just "fat."

Four styles at one popular price—

$3.00

The new Flatting Back models make Princess effects possible to stout, "dumpy" women. Ask to see our new No. 320 (tall) and No. 318 (short). If you want the new flat hip and sloping back effect.

There's no substitute for the Nemo. It was the original "reducing" corset, and it remains the best. In fact, it is the only corset that has ever really helped a stout woman to reduce her abdomen—that's why we recommend it.
